The Holiness of Heaven

DEVOTIONALS FOR THE WEEK OF:

August 2, 2026

This week let's dig deeper about the meaning of holiness in heaven.

Monday: Isaiah 6:1; Psalm 147:5; Jeremiah 23:24; Revelation 4:1-2

Why was God showing Isaiah the throne room of heaven right after the very successful king Uzziah had died? What does this passage say about the throne room of heaven? Is the throne room of God large or small? Where was God? What does the throne room tell you about God? How big is God? How powerful is He? How much does He know? Is He bound to the throne room? Today, worship our great and awesome God.

Tuesday: Isaiah 6:2; Revelation 4:3-6a; Revelation 21:11

What does the throne look like in heaven? What are the gemstones that are referred to? Carnelian is a deep 'blood' red stone. What might that cause you to think of in Christian symbolism? What does jasper like? Today spend time thinking about God's sacrifice, the redemption of our Savior and the authority and purity of God's holiness.

Wednesday: Isaiah 6:2-3; Revelation 4:6b-8

What is a seraphim? The term serafim indicates purifying fire. How many are there in these passages? Where are they? What is the significance of surrounding God's throne? What is their job? Why do you think they declare holy three times? How many wings do they have? Why do they cover their faces and their feet? Today, do not think of God flippantly. Humble yourself before Him and honor Him. He is holy. Today, thank Him for cleansing your sin with the blood of Christ.

Thursday: Isaiah 6:4-5; Isaiah 33:20

Why was Isaiah so afraid when he realized what he was seeing? Why can't we look at God and live? What was Isaiah's problem of sin? How did God resolve his sin issue? The seraphim were purifiers of God's throne room. Today, spend time asking God to purify you by cleansing you from your sin. Admit your sin and thank God for forgiving you completely.

Friday: Revelation 4:4, 9-11; Revelation 7:9-12

Who else sits on thrones in heaven? Who do you think these 24 elders represent? (Think 12 from the Old Testament and 12 from the New Testament). Who might the 12 sons of Israel represent of Old Testament people? Who might the 12 apostles represent of New Testament people? Most theologians believe these 24 represent everyone from the earth throughout history who believe in God. What do they declare about God in their worship? When you get to heaven, what will you be doing in God's throne room? Practice that today. Worship your Redeemer.

Saturday: Isaiah 6:6-8; Matthew 22:14

When Isaiah's lips were purified, what did God ask in his presence? Who was that question directed to? Why didn't God ask Isaiah before the purification? Could Isaiah have said, no to God? What was Isaiah's response to God's question? This was his calling. What did Isaiah do for God after that? What would have happened had he refused God's calling on his life? Are you purified from your sins? How has God been calling you in your life? Are you ignoring God's call? Today, choose to say yes to God.
