

Study Notes: What Would Jesus Tweet?

7 of 7

"Room Temperature Faith"

Kevin King

Revelation 3:14-22—

It begins with Jesus' identity:

1. His _____ [v. 14a]
  - a. _____ is a sign of agreement.
  - b. Jesus alone is the _____ in our lives.
  - c. All He says is true _____.
2. His Word is _____ [v. 14b]

The indictment:

1. You are _____ [vs. 15-15]
  - a. A "room temperature" Christian who has become _____
  - b. They don't care about their own _____
2. You are _____ [v. 17]
  - a. Would have been better of to be poor and know God's blessing, than rich and _____.

God's love expressed:

1. He loves us so much that He won't let us _____ [vs. 18-19]
  - a. The best way forward is to _____.
  - b. I am responsible _____.
  - c. To those who let Him in, He makes _____ [v. 20]
  - d. We get Jesus _____. We get Jesus _____.

This week ask yourself:

1. What word would I use to describe my life? Ron Scates says, "Jesus Christ is the last word in my personal life". What does that mean to me? How different would my life be if I saw Jesus as the one who defines me?
2. Do I care about my spiritual condition? What would my life look like if I was ALL IN for JESUS?

Action step:

This week keep a journal of your daily activities. At the end of the week examine what you wrote and ask yourself, "How much of what I wrote shows a life committed to Christ?" Then make a list of things to change.
