Christmas Isn't Here Yet

“Lord, help me pray this season. Give me words that lift to You what I am thinking and feeling; Help me understand the highs and lows of others around me. Would you use me to encourage and help others through the season? And may our combined prayers draw us closer to one another and to you. In Jesus’ name. Amen.”

“Everyone who prophesied speaks to men for their strengthening, encouragement and comfort.”
1 Corinthians 14:3

Confession:

How are you struggling?

About what are you sad?

Of what are you afraid?

How are you struggling with your faith?

What is alarming you?

How are you looking for God to show up?

How are you sensing God’s presence in your life?
